INDIANA BAR FOUNDATION WELCOMES NEW OFFICERS TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Indiana Bar Foundation (IBF) elected new officers to its Board of Directors at its recent meeting in Fort Wayne. The new officers elected are: Jeffrey A. Lind, president; Patricia Peyton Truitt, president-elect; Jack G. Hittle, secretary; and William E. Wendling, Jr., treasurer.

Jeffrey A. Lind practices law with the firm Fleschner, Stark, Tanoos & Newlin in Terre Haute and was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1988. He graduated from Indiana University and received his law degree from DePaul University College of Law.

Patricia Peyton Truitt is a partner with the firm Truitt and Herr in Lafayette and was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1979. She graduated from Duke University and Purdue University and received her law degree from the Indiana University School of Law.

Jack G. Hittle is a partner with the firm Church, Church, Hittle and Antrim in Noblesville and was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1973. He graduated from Butler University and received his law degree from the Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis.

William E. Wendling, Jr. practices law with the firm Campbell, Kyle and Proffitt, LLP in Carmel and was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1983. He graduated from Texas A & I University and received his law degree from the Indiana University School of Law.

The Indiana Bar Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) charitable organization founded in 1950 to assist the Indiana legal community by providing funding for Indiana nonprofit organizations promoting law, scholarships for law-related education, and sponsorship of awards for legal excellence. IBF works to advance the administration of justice, promote the public's understanding of the law and the legal system, and enhance the legal profession's performance of its ethical responsibilities.

“We are very pleased to welcome these new officers to our Board of Directors. They will be tremendous assets to the Indiana Bar Foundation and the work we do to help provide equal access to justice and promote the administration of justice within communities throughout the state of Indiana,” stated Charles Dunlap, Executive Director of the Indiana Bar Foundation.
