

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 11, 2007

Contact: Kelly Valentine, Public Relations and Events Manager
Indiana Bar Foundation
(800) 279-8772
kvalentine@inbf.org

VALPARAISO ATTORNEY SELECTED AS FELLOW OF THE INDIANA BAR FOUNDATION

Kenneth J. Allen has been selected to join the Fellows of the Indiana Bar Foundation in recognition of his professional, public and private career, which has demonstrated outstanding legal ability and devotion to his community as well as to the advancement of the legal profession. Allen is a trial attorney with Kenneth J. Allen & Associates in Valparaiso.

Members of the 2007 Fellows class were inducted at the recent annual dinner held at Union Station at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Indianapolis. Kenneth Starr, Dean, Pepperdine University School of Law was the guest speaker and discussed the relationship between the legal community and legal education at universities.

“We are very pleased to welcome Mr. Allen as a new Fellow. He will be a tremendous asset to the Indiana Bar Foundation and the work it does to promote understanding of the legal profession within communities throughout the state of Indiana,” stated Charles Dunlap, Executive Director of the Indiana Bar Foundation.

The Fellows of the Indiana Bar Foundation support the efforts of the foundation to advance programs which promise broad public support and benefit to the state of Indiana. The program was established in 1979 as an elite group of Indiana attorneys who demonstrate commitment to the mission and ideals of the IBF in advancing the administration of justice, promoting the public’s understanding of the law and enhancing the legal profession’s performance of its ethical responsibilities.

The Indiana Bar Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) charitable organization founded in 1950 to assist the Indiana legal community by providing funding for Indiana nonprofit organizations promoting law, scholarships for law-related education, and sponsorship of awards for legal excellence.

###