

Is proud to host the first ever
INDIANA STATE SUMMIT ON CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

ALONG WITH HONORARY CO-CHAIRS

Evan Bayh United States Senator	Mitch Daniels Governor of Indiana
Honorable Lee Hamilton Center on Congress at Indiana University	Richard Lugar United States Senator

Indiana Historical Society
 Indianapolis, Indiana

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2007

8:00am – 8:50am	Registration *Remnant Trust documents on display	Outside Theater Auditorium
9:00am – 9:05am	Welcome Bill Wendling President, Indiana Bar Foundation	Theater
	Presentation of Colors and Pledge of Allegiance Arsenal Technical High School
9:05am – 9:30am	Video Message from Lee Hamilton Pat Shoulders will introduce
9:30am – 9:50am	Panel Presentation: The State of Civic Education in Indiana Moderator: Dr. Suellen Reed, Superintendent of Public Instruction Participants: Chris Cavanaugh, Plainfield High School Dr. Terry Mason, Indiana University Charles Dunlap, J.D., Indiana Bar Foundation Todd Huston, State Board of Education

9:50am – 10:20am	Keynote Speakers: The state’s role in promoting civic engagement Todd Rokita, Indiana Secretary of State Trey Grayson, Kentucky Secretary of State
10:20am – 10:40am	Best Practices: We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution Robert Leming, National Director, We the People: Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Demonstration, Frontiers International students Judges: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Robert Leming, National Director, We the People ○ Stan Harris, We the People State Coordinator ○ Erin Braun, Director of Civic Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Q&A with students
10:40am – 10:45am	Break-Out Session Introduction and Dialogue Dr. Dan Prinzing Education Director, Idaho Human Rights Foundation
10:45am – 11:00am	Break
11:00am – 12:00pm	Break-Out Sessions (see nametag for assigned rooms)

Following the morning’s plenary sessions, these four smaller break-out sessions will provide an interactive and more in-depth look at key topics regarding civic engagement. Each room will have a panel of experts presenting on the issue followed by discussion and dialogue with the audience. The same break-outs will be offered in the afternoon, with participants assigned to a different session.

First Concurrent meetings will focus on:

- 1) Teaching Civic Education Across the Curriculum
- 2) Making the Case: Why Should Civic Education Be Taught?
- 3) Roadblocks to Instilling Civic Engagement: What Happened?
- 4) What is the Role for Those Outside the Classroom?

12:15pm – 1:15pm	Luncheon Lilly Hall Dr. Linda Ricketts, Ted McConnell introduces *Project Citizen Portfolios on display *Remnant Trust documents on display
------------------	--

1:15pm – 2:15pm	Afternoon Break-Out Sessions (see nametag for assigned rooms)
-----------------	--

Following the lunch session, these four smaller break-out sessions will provide an interactive and more in-depth look at key topics regarding civic engagement. Each room will have a panel of experts presenting on the issue followed by discussion and dialogue with the audience.

Morning sessions continued with different speakers and participants

- 1) Teaching Civic Education Across the Curriculum
- 2) Making the Case: Why Should Civic Education Be Taught?
- 3) Roadblocks to Instilling Civic Engagement
- 4) What is the Role for Those Outside the Classroom?

2:15pm – 2:35pm

Break

2:35pm – 4:00pm

Final Plenary Session: Where do we go from here? A call to action Moderated discussion between audience and panel on what was discussed and proposed in break-out sessions. Panel of wide-ranging experts on stage to answer questions and help guide discussion

MODERATOR: Dr. Dan Prinzing, Idaho Human Rights Education Ctr.

- Chris Cavanaugh, Plainfield High School
- Wendy McNamara, Social Studies Supervisor, EVSC
- Dr. Suellen Reed, State Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Ted McConnell, Director, Civic Mission of Schools, CCE
- Dr. Linda Ricketts, Intercultural Communication Services

4:00pm

Final remarks – Pat Shoulders

Farewell, St. Richards School We the People students perform the preamble